

Local Number Portability would increase competition in the wireless industry. I would like to change wireless service providers but I am faced with reprinting business cards, letterhead, communicating new numbers to friends, business associates, and clients, etc... With Local Number Portability, I could change to the carrier of my choice without the added expense of disrupting my business.